

Fairtrade Fortnight 2017

Fairtrade coffee morning Monmouth Priory.
Saturday, 4th March 10 – 12

Fairtrade tea, coffee, hot chocolate + delicious homemade cakes

+ stalls selling fairly traded products from Oxfam, Love Zimbabwe and Tools for Self Reliance Cymru

“Fairtrade under Fire in Palestine”

Cathi Pawson,
Zaytoun Communications Officer

Monmouth Priory
Friday March 10th 7.00pm

Cathi Pawson is a co-founder of Zaytoun, set up in 2004, shortly after the intifada ended. She now lives in Monmouthshire.

Zaytoun is an award-winning social enterprise, now based in London, with a mission to develop the UK market for fairly traded Palestinian produce. Fairtrade for Palestinian farming families is a way to preserve and celebrate their heritage and offer a voice to rural communities in Palestine who so often feel isolated by the restrictions of the Israeli occupation.

Tickets £5 to include Fairtrade wine or a soft drink + Zaytoun products and nibbles
Tickets at the door and Madelines, Beaufort Yard

Monmouth Library and Hub
February 27th to March 12th

To find out more about Zaytoun and Fairtrade visit the display for leaflets + samples